Attire

Our Graduation Celebration is an opportunity for graduates to dress in a manner they feel fits the occasion. Most students choose to wear either a cap and gown, clothing with personal or cultural significance, or simply a nice outfit.

Seating

There will be open seating for guests in Kane 120— no tickets are required for entry. Families and children are welcome.

Livestream

The DGH graduation ceremony will be livestreamed via the following Zoom link, which may be shared with family and friends who are unable to attend in person:

<https://washington.zoom.us/j/93934879481>

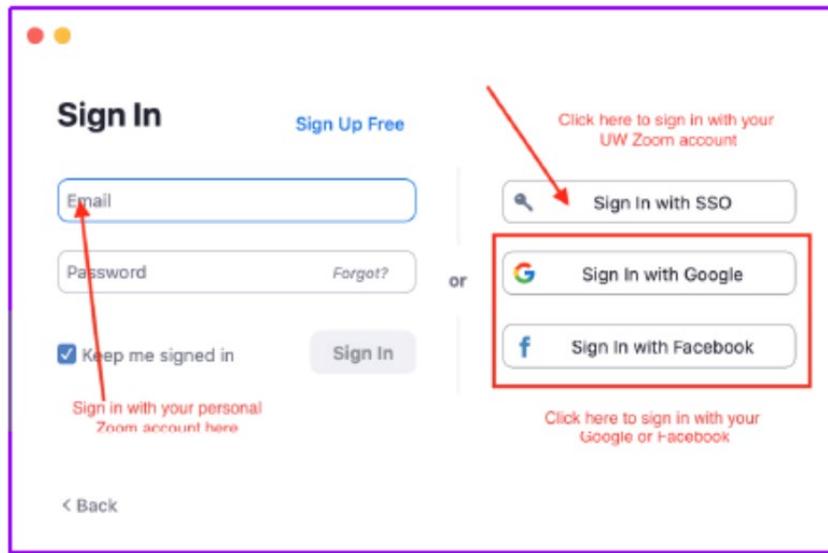

Note: Viewers will need to use an authenticated account to access the Zoom link—please share the following instructions with those who wish to view the livestream. It is recommended that you instruct guests in the use of Zoom prior to the event to avoid connection issues on the day.

Zoom Instructions:

- Open the Zoom desktop client on your computer. If you do not have the Zoom desktop client on your computer, you can download it here.

- Open the Zoom desktop client and click Sign In:

Disability access and accommodations

The University of Washington is committed to providing access and accommodation in its services, programs, and activities. Venue details can be found on the Kane Hall Accessibility page. To make a request connected to a disability or health condition, contact Dave Noeller at dnoeller@uw.edu by May 31, 2023.

Additional Information

Please monitor the DGH Graduation page for further details and updates.

Transportation

Please keep in mind that on-campus parking is extremely limited— we strongly encourage graduates and guests to utilize public transportation and ride share services.

Light Rail:

- The UW Link Light Rail Station is the closest station to Kane Hall. Riders may use the SoundTransit website to plan their trip.
- The approximate walking time from the UW Light Rail Station to Kane Hall is 10 minutes.
- Trains arrive every 8 minutes from 3:00PM to 7:00PM on Thursday, June 8.
- One-way fares range from $2.25 to $3.50 depending on how far you travel.

- Please visit the SoundTransit Routes and Schedules page for more information.

Ride Share:

- Riders may provide the following address to their driver to be dropped off at the roundabout in front of Parrington Hall, a short walk from Kane Hall: Parrington Hall, 4105 George Washington Lane Northeast, Seattle, WA 98105.

Parking:

- Campus parking for all graduation events, including department events, will require a parking permit. We recommend parking in Central Plaza Garage, as it is the closest option for on-campus parking.
- To park off-campus, please plan to arrive early as parking can be difficult to find around the UW Campus.
- Graduates will be able to pre-purchase parking permits ($17.75) from the UW Commencement page (from May 3 – May 21, 2023). If you wish to guarantee parking in a particular lot, it is recommended that you pre-purchase a permit, since some lots may sell out. Day-of-event parking permits will cost $18.75 and will require that you use Pay by Phone or the pay machines in the lots.
