Contact

For questions on the day of the event, please send a text message to 206-300-1532.

Public health guidance

All public health guidance will be followed for this event. Currently, verification of vaccination status or proof of a recent negative test for COVID-19, are not required for entry. Wearing a mask is recommended at this time. Stay home if you are sick or have symptoms of COVID-19. The Department of Global Health is following the same guidance as the main UW Commencement 2022 event.

As the situation with COVID-19 is rapidly changing, please plan to check the UW Vaccination Policy and the UW Face Covering Policy for updates as our celebration nears. In addition, we ask that all attendees self-monitor for COVID-19 symptoms and plan to stay home if symptomatic or if instructed to isolate or quarantine by a public health professional.

Attire

Our Graduation Celebration is an opportunity for graduates to dress in a manner they feel fits the occasion. Most students choose to wear either a cap and gown, clothing with personal or cultural significance, or simply a nice outfit.

Seating

There will be open seating for guests in Hogness Auditorium— no tickets are required for entry. Families and children are welcome. There is a large area at the back of the auditorium to accommodate those with young children or infants who wish to stand.

Live streaming

The DGH graduation ceremony will be live streamed via Zoom. Please feel free to share the link below with family and friends who are unable to attend in person. It is recommended that you instruct guests in the use of Zoom prior to the event to avoid connection issues on the day.
